

KORDIN · MALTA · CORPORATE EXPERIENCE

YOUR TEAM. ONE GREAT ESCAPE.

A cinematic prison-break adventure, live characters and laser tag inside Malta's real historic prison — with dinner and keepsakes available around the story.

A proposal for HR, CEOs and event organisers

You know the practical plan. Your team discovers the story. Please keep the unexpected turns between us.

Why this is different

This is not a table reservation with an activity attached. Your colleagues step into one shared story, make decisions together, change roles and leave with moments that belong to this team alone.

Concept image — final photography and costumes agreed before the event.

The evening in five scenes

- 01 A familiar welcome at Pavilion.
 - 02 Characters from another time interrupt the evening.
 - 03 Clues, shared decisions and an escape through Kordin.
 - 04 Two laser-tag rounds with a role switch.
 - 05 Photographs, a shared finale and — in the chosen format — dinner together.

DJ, live music and other additions are quoted separately. The full package contains one selected dining format – not all three.

Evidence of an unusual evening

A portrait with a numbered placard. A photograph inside the real cell. A personal fictional Release Certificate. The Plus and Full formats can turn the evening into a story your team takes home.

What the organiser receives

- A written programme and timing plan
- Confirmed inclusions, menu, drinks and total price
- Clothing, arrival, participation and access guidance
- A plan for dietary needs and less-active roles
- Change, cancellation and final guest-number terms

What your team can be told

“We’re heading to Kordin for a prison-escape adventure, laser tag and dinner together. You’ll be part of the story. The rest? We’re keeping that for the evening.”

Photography and costumes are voluntary. Ordinary clothes are welcome. Suitability, movement, lighting, sound and any participation adjustments are discussed before confirmation.

Let’s talk about your event.

Leave your name, phone number and a convenient time. Our event manager will call to discuss the right format for your group. The preferred time is a request, not a confirmed appointment.
